7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 GREGORY TIIFT,

14 Defendants.

CASE NO. CR20-0168-JCC

ORDER

15 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Gregory Tift's motion to continue trial
16 (Dkt. No. 117). Having thoroughly considered the briefing, and finding oral argument
17 unnecessary, the Court GRANTS the motion for the reasons described herein.

18 Defendant moves to continue based on his need for additional time to review voluminous
19 discovery along with other complicating factors, including his decision to represent himself, and 20 pending external evidentiary testing results. (Dkt. No. 117 at 2–3, 6.) The Government opposes,
21 asserting Defendant was warned of the risks of self-representation, has already received adequate
22 time to prepare for trial, and because the public's interest in a speedy trial outweighs his 23 proffered reasons for a continuance. (Dkt. No. 84 at 3.) Defendant previously moved to continue
24 in December 2021, (see Dkt. No. 53), and the Government filed another motion to continue in 25 March 2022, (see Dkt. No. 84).

26 The Court FINDS that, taking into account the exercise of due diligence, the failure to

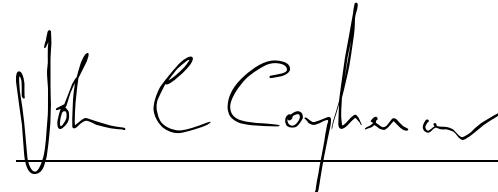

1 grant a continuance would deny Defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective
2 preparation, see 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv), and would therefore result in a miscarriage of
3 justice, see id. (h)(7)(B)(i). Based on these findings, the Court concludes that the ends of justice
4 served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and of Defendant to a
5 speedy trial, as set forth in § 3161(h)(7)(A).

6 Here, Defendant asks to continue the trial date to January or February of 2023. (Dkt. No.
7 122 at 5). The Court agrees with the Government that Defendant's request for more time is 8 tempered by the two previous continuances, the Court's warning about the risks of self-
9 representation, and the public's interest in a speedy trial.

10 Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Defendant's motion to continue (Dkt. No. 117) and 11 ORDERS as follows:

12 1. The September 12, 2022 jury trial is CONTINUED until November 21, 2022.
13 2. The pretrial motions deadline is CONTINUED until October 4, 2022.
14 3. The period from the date of this order through the new trial date, November 21, 2022,
15 is excludable under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(6).

16 DATED this 20th day of July 2022.
